NLUD Justice for Children Litigation Fellowship (Rajasthan)

Established under the aegis of the NLUD Chair on Justice for children in collaboration with UNICEF

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS FOR LITIGATION SUPERVISOR (JAIPUR, RAJASTHAN)

Employment type:	Contractual, Part-time
Time period:	12 months, starting December 15, 2026
Location:	Rajasthan (Jaipur)
Stipend:	INR 60,000/- monthly
Qualifications:	Law Graduate (LL.B. or B.A.LL.B.)
Application Deadline:	November 30, 2026

Essential Requirements:

- Litigation work experience of 2+ years in Rajasthan
- Updated knowledge of the POCSO and JJ Act as also the new criminal codes and special legislations, along with proficiency in court procedures and practice.
- Strong understanding of child-centric criminal jurisprudence and child rights frameworks
- Experience in legal research, drafting, and preparation of court pleadings
- Ability to supervise litigation work, including coordination with fellows on the field.
- Experience in mentoring or training junior legal professionals
- High proficiency in written and spoken English and Hindi
- Strong organisational, coordination, and case-management skills
- Commitment to ethical, trauma-informed, and rights-based legal practice

Desirable Requirements:

- Previous work experience in child-centric cases before various child-centric forums
- Experience as support person
- Providing free legal aid, including providing assistance with victim compensation
- Proficiency in the use of MS Excel, AI tools, and graphic design tools
- Proficiency in social media outreach

About the Fellowship

The NLUD Justice for Children Litigation Fellowship, is a flagship program for young graduates committed to litigation practice on issues pertaining to POCSO and the JJ Act. Supported by UNICEF, the Fellowship aims at improving access to justice for children in need of care and protection, and children in conflict with the law through the provision of quality legal aid support to children, and the creation of a cadre of well-trained and dedicated child-sensitive lawyers. For more information visit:

Responsibilities of the Supervisor

- Oversee and coordinate all litigation-related work under the Litigation Fellowship (Rajasthan)
- Supervise and mentor Litigation Fellows engaged in case work
- Ensure effective implementation of child-centric litigation strategies in line with the new criminal laws, POCSO and JJ Act.
- Collaborate with legal institutions and relevant platforms, including identifying and curating resource persons for project-related events.
- Be resident in Jaipur and coordinate with the UNICEF Rajasthan Office and Rajasthan State Legal Services Authority
- Make routine visits to Udaipur as part of litigation supervision and case management.
- Assign and Monitor case progress and maintain litigation records and documentation
- Facilitate training and capacity-building of fellows in court procedures and trauma-informed child rights legal practice
- Act as a liaison between the litigation team and the NLUD J4C Chair
- Ensure adherence to professional standards, timelines, and project objective

How to apply

Complete the Google form available here: https://forms.gle/nnSKrLW7Mowo5ywE8
Please do not submit any application materials by post or email.

Please do not submit any application materials by post or email.

Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted, and advance to the interview stage of the selection process.

Contact for queries

unicefchair@nludelhi.ac.in