

NLUD JUSTICE FOR CHILDREN LITIGATION FELLOWSHIP (MADHYA PRADESH)

Call for Applications – Litigation Fellows

Employment type:	Contractual, Part-time.
Time period:	12 months, starting June 18, 2026
Location:	Madhya Pradesh (Jabalpur & Ujjain)
Stipend:	INR 30,000/- monthly
Application Deadline:	June 25, 2026
Qualifications:	Law Graduate (LL.B. or B.A.LL.B.)

Essential requirements -

- Updated knowledge of substantive and procedural child rights law, including POCSO and JJ Act;
- Minimum litigation experience of 2 years litigation;
- Proficiency in drafting and pleading;
- Commitment and interest in Child Rights and Law;
- Proficiency in arguing cases before the forums in Madhya Pradesh

Desirable requirements -

- Minimum experience of 2 years in child rights litigation;
- Proficiency in arguing cases before the Children’s Court and JJB in Madhya Pradesh
- LLM or an equivalent Master’s degree in Law;
- Research experience and proficiency in legal writing;
- Proficiency in the use of MS Word and PowerPoint

Responsibilities:

The litigation fellows will be expected to:

- Attend the training and capacity building sessions organized under the fellowship program.
- Service the cases pertaining to children in need of care and protection; and children in conflict with the law that have been assigned to them by the Litigation Fellowship Supervisor. This includes end-to-end handling of the case - meeting the child and their family, making submissions in court, arguing the case, updating the child and family, etc.
- Submit case reports in the format prescribed to the Litigation Fellowship Supervisor.
- Attend the online and offline monthly review sessions with the Litigation Fellowship Supervisor and the Chair at NLUD.
- Submit brief notes to the Litigation Fellowship Supervisor for publication in the Quarterly newsletter under the section on 'Notes from the Field' which highlights the experiences, successes and challenges of the litigation fellows.

About the Fellowship:

The NLUD Justice for Children Litigation Fellowship, is a flagship program for young graduates committed to litigation practice on issues pertaining to POCSO and the JJ Act. Supported by UNICEF, the Fellowship aims at improving access to justice for children in need of care and protection, and children in conflict with the law through the provision of quality legal aid support to children, and the creation of a cadre of well-trained and dedicated child sensitive lawyers. For more information about the NLUD J4C Chair, see: <https://unicefchairnludelhi.com/#/>

How to apply:

Complete the online form and include all relevant attachments. Please do not submit any application materials by post or email. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted, and advance to the interview stage of the selection process in June. To access the form, click here - APPLICATION FORM

Contact for queries:

unicefchair@nludelhi.ac.in, srishti.ray@nludelhi.ac.in